

Subject: Develop databases dedicated to Clinical Research

Supervisor: Dr Laurence BORAND

Summary:

The Epidemiology and Public Health Unit of Institut Pasteur in Cambodia is conducting clinical trials and prospective studies to improve the health of people suffering from infections such as HIV, tuberculosis, dengue, bacterial infections, rabies... We would like to strengthen our Data Management team with students who would contribute to the development of professional databases on software designed for clinical research.